Learn how you as an individual and we as a community can make a difference in housing those in need.

LA ranks as one of the least affordable housing areas in the U.S., and Habitat is making an impact on changing that statistic. This month's program is a collaboration with United Nations SFV Chapter, AAUW and Habitat that shares our concerns for the unhoused in our community which particularly impacts women and children.

Program will be on Zoom. Please RSVP to Ginny Hatfield at ginnyvmh@gmail.com to receive the meeting link and access code.

The United Nations Association of the USA (UNA-USA) is a movement of Americans dedicated to supporting the United Nations. With over 20,000 members (60% under the age of 26) and more than 200 chapters across the country, UNA-USA members are united in their commitment to global engagement and their belief that each of us can play a part in advancing the UN's mission and achieving the Sustainable Development Goals.

Habitat for Humanity is a global nonprofit housing organization working in local communities across all 50 states in the United States and in more than 70 countries around the world. Habitat's vision is of a world where everyone has a decent place to live. Habitat works toward our vision by building strength, stability and self-reliance in partnership with people and families in need of a decent and affordable home.

The American Association of University Women, officially founded in 1881, is a non-profit organization that advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, and research
